

JOHN F. KENNEDY-INSTITUT FÜR NORDAMERIKASTUDIEN
FREIE UNIVERSITÄT BERLIN

MATERIALIEN – 2 –

VIOLENCE IN THE UNITED STATES:
Riots – Strikes – Protest and Suppression
A Working Bibliography for Teachers and Students

compiled and edited by

Dirk Hoerder

BERLIN 1973

Contents

Preface	III
Introduction	IX
Part I	1
Part II	19
Part III	84
Appendix I: Chronology of Important Riots and Rebellions	123
1. Colonial Period to 1760ies	123
2. Revolutionary Period, 1760ies to 1780ies	123
3. Early National Period to Civil War	124
4. Civil War to First World War (synopsis)	124
5. Minorities: Slave Revolts	125
6. Minorities: Riots against and by Blacks	126
7. Minorities: Diverse Events	127
8. Urban Riots 1820ies to 1850ies	127
9. Labor Movement Civil War to New Deal	128
Appendix II: Descriptive Accounts of Some Kinds of Violence and of Some Events	129
General	129
Colonial Period	130
Early National Period to Civil War	132
Violence Arising from Slavery (National Period)	135
Violence Caused by Low Wages etc. ("Labor Violence")	136
Other Violence (late 19th to early 20th Century)	138
Authors Index	140
Part I: General Literature on Crowds and Violence	1
1. Protest - Riots - Revolution	2
2. Violence	7
3. Crowds	10
4. Comparative Analysis of Violence	11
5. Violence in the United States - General Literature	12

Part II: Violence in Mainstream American History Since the European Colonization	19
1. Colonial Period: Riots and Rebellions	20
1.1 General	20
1.2 Specific Events	21
2. Independence; Crowd Action	28
2.1 General	28
2.2 Specific Events	32
3. Pre-Civil-War Period	32
3.1 General Since 1776	32
3.2 Agrarian Uprisings	32
3.3 Urban Riots	37
3.3.1 Early Urban Riots	37
3.3.2 Urban Riots, esp. 1830-50ies	37
3.4 Statewide Movements	38
4. Civil War to Cold War	40
4.1 Consequences of the Civil War	40
4.1.1 Draft Riots	40
4.1.2 Ku Klux Klan	40
4.1.3 Warfare's Consequences: Feuds, Bandittism	40
4.2 Agrarian Movements	41
4.2.1 Claim Clubs	41
4.2.2 Range Wars	41
4.2.3 Granger, Greenback, Populist Movements	42
4.2.4 Direct Action	43
4.2.5 Idolized Bandittism in the West	44
4.3 Strikes and Violence against and by Labor	45
4.3.1 General	45
4.3.2 Nineteenth-Century Labor Violence	48
4.3.3 Violence and Strikes to 1925 (Wagner Act)	54
4.3.4 Labor Disputes Since the Wagner Act	59
5. Protest and Violence after 1945, esp. 1960ies	61
5.1 General, incl. Official Repression	61
5.2 Student Movement	62
5.3 Anti-Vietnam-War Movement	66
5.4 School Strikes	67
5.5 The 1968 Conventions and the Election Campaign	68

VIII

6. Some Specific Kinds of Violence	69
6.1 Political Violence	69
6.2 Draft Resistance and Red Scare	70
6.3 Criminal Violence	71
6.4 Enforcement of Laws, Codes, Norms	73
6.4.1 Pre-Governmental Enforcement	73
6.4.2 Enforcement by State Agencies, incl. Private Police	79
6.5 Border Wars and Violence	82
7. Description of Violence in Film and Fiction	83
Part III: Violence against and by Racial, Ethnic and Religious Minorities in America Since the European Colonization	84
1. Attempted Genocide; Indian "Removal"	85
2. Attempted Total Submission: Slavery (to 1862) and the Black People	89
2.1 General	89
2.2 Slavery in the Colonial Period	92
2.2.1 General	92
2.2.2 Specific Events	92
2.3 Slave Insurrections and White Repression, Abolitionism
2.3.1 General	93
2.3.2 Specific Events	94
2.3.3 Specific Kinds of Riots	97
2.4 Civil War	98
2.4.1 General	98
2.4.2 Specific Kinds of Riots	99
2.5 Race Disorder from Reconstruction to the End of the Century	100
2.5.1 General	100
2.5.2 Specific Events	100
2.6 Race Riots in the Twentieth Century (to 1950ies)	101
2.6.1 General	101
2.6.2 Specific Events	107
3. Attempted Resistance to the Integration of Other Minorities	111
3.1 Nativism	111
3.2 A Religious Minority: Mormons	111
3.3 Immigrant Minorities	111
3.3.1 General	111
3.3.2 European Ethnic Groups	112
3.3.3 American (non-pure-white) Ethnic Groups	113
3.3.4 Asian Ethnic Groups	114
4. Uprisings against White Suppression in the 1960ies	117
4.1 General	117
4.2 The Black People	117
4.3 The Mexican People	121
4.4 The Indian People	122