

JOHN F. KENNEDY - INSTITUT FÜR NORDAMERIKASTUDIEN
FREIE UNIVERSITÄT BERLIN

MATERIALIEN - 7 -

American Labor History
Research, Teaching, and Bibliographic Aids

compiled and edited by
Dirk Hoerder

Berlin
1976

Contents

Part A: A Guide to Working Class History	A	1
Introduction	A	2
The U.S.: General Sources	A	2
The U.S.: To the Civil War	A	5
The U.S.: 1865-1930	A	8
The U.S.: The 1930s	A	13
The U.S.: Recent and Current History	A	16
Canada	A	20
Bibliographies, Reference Works, Historiography	A	25
Labor Sources in Reprint and Microform Editions	A	26
Part B: Directory of Institutions Concerned with Labor Relations	B	1
1. Libraries	B	3
2. Internatl. Unions with Education Departments	B	27
3. University Labor Education Services	B	31
4. Other Addresses	B	34
Part C: Nineteenth-Century Labor Newspapers	C	1
List of Labor Newspapers by States	C	2
Graph: Labor Newspapers 1827-1860	C	54
Graphs: Labor Newspapers 1860-1900 (by regions)	C	56
Alphabetical Index to Newspapers	C	66
Part D: Strikes and Direct Labor Action vs. Industrial Violence and Repression	D	1
1. General	D	2
1.1 Labor, Immigrants and Race Relations	D	5
1.2 Labor on the Sea	D	8
1.3 Labor in Agriculture	D	8
1.4 Public Service	D	9
1.5 Specific Industries and Services	D	9
2. Labor before the Civil War	D	10
3. Industrial Violence: Reconstruction to 1905	D	10
4. Strikes 1905-1935: From the I.W.W. to the New Deal	D	23
5. 4.1 General	D	23
4.2 Industrial Workers of the World	D	24
4.3 Specific Strikes	D	25
5. Strikes since the Wagner Act (1935)	D	37

Acknowledgements:

I am grateful to Ms. Wethekam for typing parts of the manuscript, to Ms. Nowotny and Mr. Sollwedel for photoduplication of texts included. Copyright acknowledgements are to be found on the first pages of each section.