

Betreute Promotionen

Erstgutachten

Rebecca Brückmann, Massive Resistance and Southern Womanhood: Gender Discourses, Women's Activities and Media Representations in the Segregationist Counter-Movement.

Elisabeth Engel, African American (Anti)Colonialism: The African Methodist Episcopal Church and Colonial Africa, 1920-1937.

Simone Müller-Pohl, "The Transatlantic Telegraphs and the Wiring of the World, 1858-1914. Cultural Networks in Maritime Space" (abgeschlossen).

Jane Preuß, Social Work, Stratification Processes and the Fight for Racial Justice in The Association for the Protection of Colored Women.

Philipp Reick, The Urban Poor in Times of Crisis: Resistance, Success and Failure of Unemployed Movements in Berlin and New York City in the 1870s, 1930s and 1980s.

Zweitgutachten

Frauke Brammer, Encounters: The Canadian Armed Forces in Germany, 1951-1993.

Silke Hackenesch, Constructing Blackness: Chocolate as a Racial Signifier in Historical and Cultural Perspective (abgeschlossen).

Markus Kienscherf, Holding the Fort versus Holding the Street: Techniques of Social Control and Global (Counter)Insurgencies (abgeschlossen).

Stefanie Land-Hillbert, Narrating the Other: Indigenous Representations in Twentieth-Century Australian and Canadian School Books.

Frauke Scheffler, American Indian Policy, United States Imperialism in the Philippines and the Formation of Race, 1890-1914 (working title). A.r.t.e.s. Forschungsschule Universität zu Köln.

Kathryn Schweishelm, Plastic Makes Perfect: The Stepford Wives and the Changing Politics of the Female Body.

Berlin Program for Advanced German and European Studies (in Kooperration mit der German Studies Association GSA):

Doctoral and Postdoctoral Research Colloquium, Wintersemester 2008/09 und Sommersemester 2011