

9/11 and the Consequences

Mittwochs, 17:00 - 19:00
John-F.-Kennedy-Institut, Raum 340
Lansstr. 7-9, 14195 Berlin

19. Oktober 2011

Film: Human Terrain Screening (56 Min.) and Discussion with
Prof. James Der Derian, PhD (Brown University)

26. Oktober 2011

Prof. Dr. Bernd Greiner (Hamburger Institut für Sozialforschung)
Imperiale Präsidentschaft und Präventionsrecht:
Spuren von 9/11 in den USA und Europa

9. November 2011

Dr. Andreas Etges (Kennedy-Institut)
Trapped by History? America at War from World War II to the “War on Terror“

16. November 2011

Dr. Andrew Gross (Kennedy-Institut)
Michael Chabon’s “The Yiddish Policemen’s Union“:
Violence, Detection, and the Politics of Memory after 9/11

23. November 2011

Prof. Dr. Moritz Schularick (Kennedy-Institut)
A Dismal Decade -- The American Economy since 9/11

30. November 2011

Dr. Bryan van Sweringen (Kennedy-Institut)
Consequences of 9/11 for the American Military Tradition:
History, Legend, and a Case for Constructive Criticism

7. Dezember 2011

Dr. Peter Boehm (Botschafter von Kanada in Deutschland)
Still Friends and Neighbours: Canada, the US and the Implications of 9/11

14. Dezember 2011

Prof. Victoria de Grazia, PhD (Columbia University)
Soft Power Militarism: Before and After 9/11

4. Januar 2012

Thomas S. Blanton (Director National Security Archive)
The Secrecy-Security Oxymoron: The Hyper-Growth of Top-Secret
America and the Declining Health of Global Democracy

11. Januar 2012

Prof. Dr. Peter Marcuse (Columbia University)
Unresolved Issues after 9/11:
Conflicting Responses -- from Solidarity to Bigotry

18. Januar 2012

Prof. Dr. Winfried Fluck (Kennedy-Institut)
Ambivalence to Irony to Grotesquery:
9/11 and Changing European Perceptions of America

25. Januar 2012

Dr. Peter Struck (Bundesminister der Verteidigung, 2002-2005)
Neue Herausforderungen der deutschen Außen- und Sicherheitspolitik

1. Februar 2012

Prof. Dr. Lora Anne Viola (Kennedy-Institut)
The New American Security State: 9/11’s impact on US Foreign Policy Institutions

15. Februar 2012

Prof. Dr. Harald Wenzel (Kennedy-Institut)
Being Hurt: Regarding the Pains of 9/11