

JOHN F. KENNEDY-INSTITUT FÜR NORDAMERIKASTUDIEN
FREIE UNIVERSITÄT BERLIN

MATERIALIEN 33

MEETING GLOBAL AND DOMESTIC CHALLENGES: CANADIAN FEDERALISM IN PERSPECTIVE

International Conference in Honor of the 20th Anniversary of the Visiting Professorship in Canadian Studies at the
John F. Kennedy-Institut für Nordamerikastudien
Freie Universität Berlin
June 21-22, 2002

WITH CONTRIBUTIONS BY

Joachim Amm, Sylwia Klusek, Ursula Lehmkuhl, Ralf Lindner, Marcel Martel, Phil Resnick, Sherry Simon, Wilfried Siemerling and Martin Thunert.

EDITED BY

Thomas Greven and Heinz Ickstadt

BERLIN 2004

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Thomas Greven and Heinz Ickstadt: Introduction.....	4
---	---

Part I: Domestic and International Challenges to Canadian Federalism

Phil Resnick: “The Life and Times of Canadian Federalism”.....	11
Martin Thunert: “Continental Drift? Canadian Federalism and the Challenge of North American Integration”.....	27
Ralf Lindner: “Interprovincial and Intergovernmental Relations in a New Fiscal Era”.....	47
Sylwia Klusek: “From Cooperative Federalism to Interstate Federalism”.....	66
Joachim Amm: “Why doesn’t the Canadian Senate represent Provincial Interests?”.....	77

Part II: Federation and Regional Identity – Conflicting Frames of Canada’s Cultural Self-definition

Ursula Lehmkuhl: “Foreign Cultural Diplomacy in a Climate of National Fragmentation - Canada in the 1960”.....	88
Marcel Martel: “Managing Ethnic Pluralism: the Canadian Experience, 1860-1971”.....	110
Winfried Siemerling: “From Narratives of Emergence to Transculture: Parti Pris and Vice Versa ”.....	125
Sherry Simon: “Montreal: Translating the Divided City”.....	142