

Call for Papers for PhD students

1st Berlin Workshop on Empirical Public Economics Preferences and Public Policy

March 17-18, 2022

On-Site Workshop

Confirmed Speakers:

Michele Belot (Cornell University)

Thomas Dohmen (Bonn University)

Nadia Dwenger (University of Hohenheim)

Osea Giuntella (University of Pittsburgh)

Claus Thustrup Kreiner (University of Copenhagen)

Victor Lavy (University of Warwick and Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

Anna Maria Mayda (Georgetown University)

Hannah Schildberg-Hörisch (Heinrich Heine University)

Organizers: Max Steinhardt and Luca Stella

Collaborators: Natalia Danzer, Peter Haan, Peter Mohr

We are soliciting papers for the poster session dedicated to PhD students of the 1st Berlin Workshop on Empirical Public Economics: Preferences and Public Economics. The workshop's focus is broad, covering empirical economic research across these topics. The workshop will last two days, with a small number of invited speakers and PhD students presenting their works during a poster session. The workshop also aims to foster new connections among young and senior scholars with common interests in these areas.

If you are interested in presenting a paper during the poster session, please send a draft of your paper to luca.stella@fu-berlin.de by February 10, 2022. Decisions will be made by February 15, 2022.