

John F. Kennedy Institute
For North American Studies

Department of Sociology

COLLOQUIUM'S DAY

Tuesday, June 18, Room 340

10:00-10:40 hours

Vincenza Taormina

The Prevalence of Rape Myths in US
Newspapers: A Content Analysis

10:45-11:25 hours

Janine Bernard

The Discursive Construction of „Refugees“ and „Flight“ in the Public Discourse in Germany since the „Refugee Crisis“ 2015

11:30-12:10 hours

Christoph Koth

The Electronic Hospital - The Influence of Digitization on Working Conditions and Company Rule in Hospitals in Berlin

12:10-13:00 hours

Lunch break

13:00-13:40 hours

Josephine Gruber

Angry Women? An Exploration Into a Gendered Division of (Emotional) Labor in Demonstrations in the US

13:45-14:25 hours

Neslihan Bilge

Self-spirituality in USA: A Case Study of Visionary Art

14:30-15:10 hours

Giannopoulos Panagiotis

Greek Immigrants in Berlin after the 2008 Economic Crisis and the Role of Cultural Capital

15:10-15:50 hours

Coffee Break

15:50-16:30 hours (R. 305)

Irem Erdem

Understanding the dog-human companionship

16:35-17:15 hours (R. 305)

Ryan Macklay

tba